A photograph of a construction site in a residential area. In the background is a large, multi-story brick apartment building. In the foreground, there is a large pile of dirt and a wooden frame structure under construction. A red excavator is visible near the building. The sky is overcast.

A photograph of a residential street in Montreal, Quebec, Canada. The street is paved with asphalt and has a yellow-painted crosswalk. On the left side of the street, there are several tall, multi-story apartment buildings with red brick and white facades. A large green tree is visible on the far left. In the background, a grassy area with a few people walking is visible. On the right side of the street, a white car is parked. A blue and red circular traffic sign is visible on the right. The sky is overcast and grey.
