

This is a cadastral map of a rural area in France. The map displays numerous land parcels, each identified by a unique number. A prominent yellow line outlines a specific parcel boundary, which is the subject of the map. The map includes several place names: 'Mermeil' in the center, 'Bayles' in the upper right, and 'OM' in the lower left. The map is sourced from Esri, France, DGFiP, Ministère de l'Economie et des Finances, and IGN.
